INTRODUCTION

Returning to the House of God Our Father

The Catholic Church teaches us that God Our Father sent His Son Jesus to bring us back home to Him and that the Holy Spirit was sent to lead us on that journey. This is reflected in Pope John Paul II's preparation for the Jubilee 2000 – 1997, the Year of Jesus; 1998, the Year of the Holy Spirit; and 1999, the Year of the Father. Our spiritual journey, then, is intended to move us always in the direction of God Our Father. As Jesus tells us:

I came down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him that sent me. Now this is the will of the Father who sent me: that of all that he hath given me, I should lose nothing; but should raise it up again in the last day. (Jn 6:38-39 DV).

In my Father's house there are many mansions. If not, I would have told you: because I go to prepare a place for you. And if I shall go, and prepare a place for you, I will come again; and will take you to myself, that where I am, you also may be . . . I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No man cometh to the Father, but by me. (Jn 14:2-3, 6 DV).

Our Holy Father John Paul II writes in Tertio Millenio Adveniente [As the Third Millennium Draws Near] that “the whole of the Christian life is like a great pilgrimage to the house of the Father, whose unconditional love for every human creature, and in particular for the ‘prodigal son’ (Lk 15:11-32), we discover anew each day.” In this same apostolic letter he also reminds us that during this time, Mary, our Mother, will be lovingly and urgently inviting “all the children of God so that they will return to the house of the Father when they hear her maternal voice: “Do whatever Christ tells you”. (Jn 2:5).

Our return to the house of our Father, then, is ordained by God as a “process.” It is a process that begins with our Mother Mary who lovingly guides us to her Son. Jesus then mercifully lifts us up on His Cross to Our Father. While comforting us on this journey home, the Holy Spirit purifies and refines us so God Our Father can come and dwell in us as living temples, and we, in turn, can dwell in Him. To do this, we must, unlike our first parents, Adam and Eve, offer our unconditional “Yes” to Our Father’s Will. For it was in saying “No” that mankind was exiled from Paradise and the intimate presence of God Our Father.

As children of God, we have been provided with a beautiful means to return to God Our Father, a progressive process that is described by St. Louis DeMontfort in The Secret of Mary. “If the falsely enlightened, whom the devil has so miserably illusioned, even in prayer, had known how to find Mary, and through her to find Jesus, and through Jesus, God the Father, they would not have had such terrible falls. The saints tell us that when we have once found Mary, and through Mary, Jesus, and through Jesus, God the Father, we have found all good. He, who says, accepts nothing: all grace and all friendship with God, all safety from God’s enemies, all truth to crush falsehoods, all facility to overcome difficulties in the way of salvation, all comfort and all joy amidst the bitterness of life.” Our spiritual journey, then, is a dynamic process which takes us through Mary to Jesus in existence.

If we could climb to the top of a mountain and look down on the panorama of Man’s Salvation History, we would see that mankind was created solely for the purpose of returning to its Creator – God Our Father.

THE TRIUMPH OF OUR MOTHER MARY’S IMMACULATE HEART

In these times, as the Millennium draws near, Mary’s greatest Triumph will be her cooperative role in leading us back home and restoring us to God Our Father. The first child of God to offer her “Yes” to Our Father, Mary brought Jesus, our Savior, into the world. In this, and by guiding all her children to offer their “Yes,” she truly “crushes the head” of the serpent – the serpent who seduced mankind into disobedience and exile (Gen 3:15 DV). Because of this “woman,” the children of God Our Father will once again – as it was in the beginning – dwell with Him in the Paradise of His Divine Will. She is, indeed, the Mother of All Mankind – cooperating with God’s Plan for our redemption, reconciling and uniting us with Our Father, and acting as an intercessory helper for the children of God.

Like His mother, Jesus also offers his “fiat.” In saying “Yes” to the Will of His Father, Jesus offered himself for each and every one of us. His Passion, Death and Resurrection defeated the sin and death which resulted from Adam and Eve’s free-will choice to say “No” to Our Father’s Will. Through the “Yes” of Jesus and His mother Mary, we are no longer exiled. Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the life. Both He and His mother wait patiently to lead us back home to God Our Father. They wait for our “Yes!”

After the “fiats” of Mary and Jesus, the Holy Spirit was sent by Our Father, at the request of Jesus, so that we would not be left as orphans. He comforts, guides, and purifies us on our journey back home to the Father. With our “Yes,” He prepares us so that we can become consecrated temples of the Living God.

With God truly living “in” us, we, the exiled, prodigal children, will finally be restored to God Our Father. Our Mother Mary’s Immaculate Heart will have triumphed – Our Father’s Kingdom will have truly come!

KNOWING, LOVING, AND HONORING GOD OUR FATHER

The Roman Catholic Church defines God as the three Persons of the Holy Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. However, since the earliest beginnings of the Church, there has been a tendency to focus primarily on the Second Person of the Holy Trinity – Jesus, the Son of God. And to a lesser extent, there has been renewed interest in the Holy Spirit in the latter half of the 20th century. But what of the Father?

True, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is offered up to God Our Father and the “Our Father Prayer” is directed to Him. But do we “know” the Father? Do we believe that when Jesus came to earth as the Incarnation of God that we no longer needed to know, love, serve or honor the Father? Do we think that Jesus replaced the Father? Do we feel that God Our Father belongs to the Old Testament era and Jesus belongs to the New Testament times? Do we perceive God Our Father as an ancient, mythic figure that is stern, aged, and unapproachable? Do we truly know Him? Love Him? Serve Him? Honor Him? The response to these questions by most Catholics would indicate that, indeed, something is seriously lacking in our perception and relationship with God Our Father.

Think for a moment. Do we typically see statues or paintings of the Father in our Catholic churches? Are any of our churches named in honor of Him? Does the Catholic Church have any special feasts that specifically honor Him?

The answer, unfortunately, is “No!”

THE HOLY OCTAVE OF CONSECRATION TO GOD OUR FATHER AND THE FEAST OF THE FATHER OF ALL MANKIND

Why don't we honor our Creator, Our Father – especially with a feast?

This is an unsettling question and a disturbing revelation, but it is also something we can easily remedy. As children of God Our Father, we can work towards establishing a feast for Him. The time has come to know, love, serve, and honor God Our Father through a special feast of consecration – a feast that would provide us with an opportunity to offer our fiat. Holy Scripture provides us with a blueprint for such a feast as was foreshadowed in the Feasts of Tabernacles [Booths] and Dedication (Lev 23:33-43; 2 Chron 7:1-9; 1 Mac 4:59; 2 Mac 2:1-18). Both eight-day period, or “octave.” It would be, then a Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father with its solemn eight day celebrated as The Feast Day of the Father of All Mankind.

The Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father and its Feast of the Father of All Mankind would integrate the purpose and meaning of both the previous Old Testament feasts in its focus on knowing, loving, serving and honoring God Our Father. Because of this, it would involve a commemoration of what God has done for His children and what we need to do for Our Father. With this feast, God would not only be present as He was in the Ark of the Covenant, in a stone temple, or in the tabernacle of a church – He would be housed and present in those souls who were purified and dedicated to Him through consecration.

What exactly is The Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father and its Feast of the Father of All Mankind would integrate the purpose and meaning of both the previous Old Testament feasts in its focus on knowing, loving, serving, and honoring God Our Father. Because of this, it would involve a commemoration of what God has done for His children and what we need to do for Our Father. With this feast, God would not only be present as He was in the Ark of the Covenant, in a stone temple, or in the tabernacle of a church – He would be housed and present in those souls who were purified and dedicated to Him through consecration.

What exactly is The Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father and its Feast of the Father of All Mankind?

Its greatest significance in these times is that it provides us with an opportunity (1) to honor God Our Father, (2) to offer Him our “fiat,” and (3) to consecrate ourselves to Him. In this way, we are truly cooperating with our Mother Mary in the Triumph of Her Immaculate Heart. We are returning to Our Father; we are offering Him our unconditional “fiat” as Mary and Jesus did; and we are consecrating ourselves to Him – totally. As He so richly deserves, we are finally knowing, loving, serving, and honoring Him as God Our Father – the Father of All Mankind.

CONSECRATING OURSELVES TO GOD OUR FATHER

The most compelling precedent for consecrating ourselves to God Our Father over an eight-day feast, or octave, is found in John 10:22-39. This passage describes how Jesus during the eight-day Feast of Dedication, revealed that He was consecrated to God Our Father.

Jesus further explains that He consecrated Himself to Our Father so we, too, could be consecrated in truth (Jn 17:19-21). The concept of “Consecration to God Our Father” is crucial because, as Jesus tells us, “the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for such the Father seeks to worship him. God is a spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth” (Jn 4:23-24). If we follow Jesus, if we model ourselves after Him, shouldn’t we also consecrate ourselves to God Our Father during an eight-day feast, so that we, too, can adore Him “in spirit and in truth?”

If we choose to consecrate ourselves to God Our Father, how should this be done? The concept of an “octave,” or 8-day feast, has been significant in our relationship with God since the beginning of our Salvation History. It is not by coincidence that Jesus chose to reveal His consecration to God Our Father on the eight-day Feast of Dedication. Clearly, the octave symbolizes a designated period of time when God’s children grow and God’s relationship with them changes or is transformed.

Unlike other feasts and consecration methods, The Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father views the “big picture” of our Salvation History. It involves the entire process of our spiritual journey which includes Mary, our Mother; Jesus, our God and our Savior; and the Holy Spirit, our God and our Sanctifier – with progression always toward God Our Father.

God’s Word in both the Old and New Testaments provides us with extensive Scriptural support for an eight-day or “octave,” format. From the Book of Genesis to the Gospels and Epistles, the number “eight” is used to signify salvation, covenant, purification, and dedication. Perhaps, more importantly, it is used to indicate the end of one era and the beginning of another in which God is revealed, manifested, and present to His children in a new way.

The Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father, in its most powerful form, is intended as a formal eight-day feast for God Our Father culminating on the first Sunday of the “eighth” month, God Our Father’s Month – August. The solemn eighth day of the Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father would be celebrated under the title of The Feast of the Father of All Mankind. However, consecration to God Our Father using the eight-day formula of The Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father can be done informally at any time during the year.

THE HOLY OCTAVE OF CONSECRATION TO GOD OUR FATHER

Overview

The Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father involves eight days of prayer, scripture readings, and meditation, as well as participation in the Holy Mass, the Eucharist, and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The first seven days serve as preparatory steps leading to the final day of assembly and solemn consecration – The Feast of the Father of All Mankind.

A chaplet, medal and litany have been specially designed for the octave approach of this consecration and feast day. All God's children are invited to use the following spiritual practices and format to consecrate themselves to God Our Father. Although the consecration can be done at any time by setting aside an eight-day period (preferably Sunday to Sunday), it is suggested that (1) it be renewed formally each year on the proposed date (an octave ending the first Sunday of August) and that (2) it be renewed informally each day by praying the chaplet. In addition, the short prayer, "I love You, Father, and I give myself to You" can be prayed throughout the day to help us live our consecration more fully.

Daily Format: A relevant theme taken from Holy Scripture has been selected for each of the eight days of the consecration: praise, thanksgiving, offering, repentance, inheritance (acknowledging that God is truly Our Father and we are truly His children), fiat (saying "Yes" unconditionally to God Our Father's Will), fidelity, and consecration. Therefore, generally daily practice during this eight-day period involves meditation on the selected daily theme, scripture reading, and prayer. In addition, the chaplet and litany of the Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father are to be recited daily. Daily mass and reception of the Holy Eucharist are recommended, as is the Sacrament of Reconciliation during this eight-day period.

The Chaplet: The Chaplet is made up of the Medal of the Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father and 75 beads – 11 gold and 64 red. The gold beads signify our precious goal, the Divine Treasure – God Our Father. The red beads signify the Blood of Jesus Christ which allows us to return to God Our Father.

To begin, A Prayer Invoking the Presence of God Our Father is recited. Then the Sign of the Cross and a preparatory prayer are said on the Holy Octave of Consecration Medal. Introductory prayers to Mary, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit are prayed on the three introductory gold beads that lead into the larger circle of beads.

The circle of beads is designed with major octaves (eight gold beads), each with its own minor octave (eight red beads). The eight main themes of the consecration are recited on the eight red Minor Octave Beads.

To finish the chaplet, the Holy Octave of Consecration Prayer to God the Father is then recited on the medal.

DAILY THEME: OFFERING

"And like living stones be yourselves built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ." 1 Pet 2:5

You have given me everything Father. You have given me Yourself! What can I possibly offer You? Let me offer You the first fruits, the best fruits, of all I do or receive. Let all Your children offer themselves as the fruit of Your Tree of Life. Ripened on the sacrifices, sufferings, and crosses of their earthly journeys, so that the worldwide effects of Your children's "No" – darkness, discord, and disorder – maybe be transformed and made new through Your Light and Love. I raise my arms in offering to You, Father. Receive all You have given me into Your Paternal Heart. Amen.

[Meditate on what you can offer up to God Our Father. Offer back to Him all that He has given you – the blessings and the crosses – so that all may be transformed in His Love.]

DAILY THEME: REPENTANCE

"Blessed be God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort." 2 Corinthians 1:3

My Good Father, You are all loving, but You are also just. How can Your children ever make reparation for all their sins? How can they ever hope to balance Your Scales of Justice – especially in these times.

These times when so many of Your children say "No" to You, these times when so many of Your children reject Your Will, these times when so many of Your children no longer believe in You and have enthroned themselves as "gods", these times when so many of Your children embrace the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. They have embraced the lie; they have embraced death. Shower us with Your Grace and Mercy, Father. Cleanse us in Your tears, allow us to be compassionate warriors of Your Mercy on earth, so that Your Sword of Justice may be transformed into a loving means of Your Mercy. Amen.

[Meditate on all the many ways you have hurt or offended God Our Father. Ask for His forgiveness and mercy. Ask for the grace to know, love, serve, and honor Him and to do His Will in all things.]

DAILY THEME: INHERITANCE

*"For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.
For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the spirit of sonship.*

When we cry, Abba! Father! it is the Spirit himself bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with Him in order that we may also be glorified with Him." Rom 8:15-17

Dearest God My Father:

With awe and wonder, I have learned to praise you and all Your creation. With sincere gratefulness, I have learned to thank you for Your unboundless generosity. With humility and love, I have learned to offer up to You all that You have given me. With a sorrowful but hopeful heart, I have learned to ask for Your forgiveness and tender mercy.

And now I can fully appreciate that You exist, that You are God, that You created this entire universe, that You created me. I now learn that in addition to these wonders, You are truly my Father and I am truly Your child. How can my heart contain the excitement – I am not only Your creature, but I am actually Your child.

You created me in Your own image so that I could spend eternity with You. You love me that much. But even though You have told me this in Holy Scripture and through the teachings of your Church, my ears have not heard the words, my heart was hardened.

I had wandered far away – from Your voice, Your heart, Your love for me. But now the veil is lifted, the fog has cleared. I see, I hear, I understand – You are truly my Father and I am truly Your child!

I am your prodigal child, running back to You, into Your waiting arms. I am coming home, to You, my Father, where I belong. Please hold me tightly to Your heart and never let me go – now and forever.

Amen.

[Meditate on what it means to have God as your true Father and for you to be His true child. What does legacy mean? Think about the tremendous joy and responsibilities that this involves.]

3. The Litany of The Holy Octave of Consecration to God Our Father [Page 23]
4. Daily Meditation on a Minor Octave Theme (see below)

DAILY THEME: FIAT (SAYING "YES" TO GOD OUR FATHER)

"Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to Your Word." Lk 1:38

"My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will but as thou wilt." Mt 26:39

My good and loving Father:

Please allow me the privilege of saying my "yes" to You! I say "yes" to You, Father, in all things. Not a conditional "yes" that involves doing only those things that are comfortable or easy. Not a conditional "yes" that means doing only those things that benefit me. No, I give You my "yes" in all things, Father, because I know You are pure Love and as pure Love You can transform all things. Doing Your Will can never hurt me. Doing Your Will can never harm another. Doing Your Will can never separate me from You. Doing Your Will can only bring about the rhythm and harmony of Your Will here on earth. Doing Your Will can only spread Your Light and Love. Doing Your Will can only help bring me to You. Doing Your Will can only help me bring others to You.

When I step inside Your Will, I am dancing with you in the order, rhythm, and harmony of Your Divine Will. When I step outside Your will, I am stumbling alone in the chaos, disorder, and discord of darkness. Let me listen to Your gentle, loving voice, beckoning me, inviting me into Your Divine Will. I am yours. Lord, do with me what You Will. Because I know that Your Will is love. Even when Your Will may seem painful or unfair. I know that Your ways are not always man's ways. Only You can see the grand scheme of things. Only You know the "whys" of my crosses. But despite what may sometimes appear to be unjust, I trust You totally. Why? Because You are my Father . . . and You love me. You want only what is good for me. You want me to come home to You. There's nothing in heaven or on earth that I want more. So I say "Yes, Father!" I say "Yes to You". I say "yes" to the rhythm and harmony of Your Divine Will.

Amen.

Meditate on what it means to give your fiat, your "yes" to God Our Father. How will this change your life? How will this change your relationship with God, with others?

DAILY THEME: FIDELITY

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." 2 Tim 4:7

Dearest Father, my Love and my Life:

I pledge my faith, hope, and love, as a precious gift, a promise, of my unconditional fidelity to You. Know that I trust in Your love for me. Give the strength, courage, and perseverance to never doubt, never stray, never despair. Please bless this vow and make of me a gentle warrior, battling the darkness with Your Sweet Sword of Love and Mercy. As You will never abandon me, I pray I will never abandon You. Please press me tenderly to Your heart, and never let me go. In You, Father, I trust!

Amen.

[Meditate on pledging your fidelity to God Our Father. What does it mean to be loyal and committed to God? Do you feel committed to returning to your Father? Do you want to help others return, too? What does it mean to be a "gentle warrior" of God Our Father's Love and Mercy here on earth? Like St. Paul, when you die, will you feel as though you've fought a good fight?]

DAILY THEME: CONSECRATION

"For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will live in them and move among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people" 2 Cor. 6:16

Dearest God My Father

I call upon You to witness and participate in my solemn consecration to You. After seven days of preparation, I come to You now as one who is still learning how to know and love You, how to praise and thank you, how to offer up to You all the blessings and crosses You have given me, and how to ask for Your forgiveness and mercy. I also come to You as a warrior, strong in my resolve to serve and honor You. But most importantly, I come to You as a wide-eyed child, filled with awe and wonder in the knowledge that I am truly Your child and that You – creator of the vast universe – are truly my Father.

Although I have wandered far from You in my lifetime, I choose now to return, for I long to be with You in Your house forever.

In Your Divine Presence, with full knowledge and free will, I consecrate myself to You on this day. Like a small child, I approach You; I lay tenderly against Your Fatherly Heart, and I ask that You hold me tightly and never let me go.

Let me be a temple for You to dwell in, Father. And with the greatest love and tenderness, may I be Your gentle and loyal companion, carrying You within me all the days of my life. May I bring You to my family and friends, to strangers I have yet to meet, so that they might also see Your Light and feel your tender love.

When You dwell in us, there is a blessed connection between heaven and earth. May more and more of Your children consecrate themselves to You. As Jesus taught us to pray, may "Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Amen.

[Meditate on what it means to be "consecrated" to God Our Father. The word consecration means to "make holy" or to "give oneself for a holy purpose." How does this change your life? How does this change your relationship with God Our Father? How can you "live" your consecration everyday?]

END OF DAY EIGHT DEVOTION

THE FORMAL CHAPLET

Extended Version with Meditations

A PREPARATORY PRAYER INVOKING THE PRESENCE OF GOD OUR FATHER

Dearest Father, my Creator and my God:

You promised that in every place where we honor Your name, You would come to us and bless us.

O Father, arise and come to rest in us, Your children. Clothe us in Your Salvation and let us rejoice in Your goodness. Please do not turn away our faces from Your loving presence.

If we have found favor in Your sight, show us Your face so that we may know You and find grace before Your eyes. Please speak to us now as You spoke to Moses – as a man speaks to his friend.

Let it be known this day that You are the "Father of All Mankind" who can turn all hearts back to Yourself, and that we are Your children who desire only to do Your Will in all things. Answer us, Lord; answer us – so all Your children may know that You are mankind's one true God and Father.

As Your prodigal children, we want only to return home to You. As we approach You, Father, please run to meet us. And in Your unconditional love and compassion, embrace and kiss us.

Like Mary, Your handmaid, and Jesus, Your Son, we love You, Father, and we give ourselves to You. Following those You sent to bring us back home, we now freely consecrate ourselves to You, saying:

With Mary, our Mother – "Be it done to me according to Your Will."

Through Jesus, our God and Savior – "Not as I will but as You Will."

In the Holy Spirit, our God and Sanctifier – "Abba, Father!"

Jesus promised, when two or three are gathered together in His name, He is in the midst of us. So as Jesus is in You and You in Jesus – and Jesus is the vine and we are the branches – be with us now, and through Your Holy Spirit, dwell in us always as Your living temples.

Bless us, Father, and walk among us, Your children. And may Your glory descend upon us as the transforming fire of Your tender love and mercy – now and forever.

Amen.

ON THE MEDAL OF THE HOLY OCTAVE OF CONSECRATION TO GOD OUR FATHER

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Dearest God Our Father, I humbly ask that on my journey home to You, Your Holy Angels protect and guide me; that Your Blessed Saints in Heaven intercede for me; and that Your suffering souls in purgatory pray for me, as I pray for them now. Amen.

FIRST MAJOR OCTAVE

THE DISOBEDIENCE AND EXILE OF GOD OUR FATHER'S CHILDREN

Let us meditate on (1) Adam and Eve's choice not to do God Our Father's Will, (2) their exile from the Paradise He created for them, and (3) Our Father's promise that "the woman" (Mary) would someday Triumph by "crushing the head" of the serpent that seduced them into disobedience.

God Our Father was with us at the beginning in the Paradise He created for us – the Paradise of His Divine Will. Seduced by Satan, Adam and Eve chose not to do the Will of God and were, therefore, expelled from this Paradise and denied God's intimate presence. However, Our Father promised that "the woman" would ultimately defeat the evil that had caused this separation – the evil of saying "No" to God's Will. (Gen 2:8-3:24).

SECOND MAJOR OCTAVE

THE PRESENCE OF GOD OUR FATHER IN THE OLD TESTAMENT ERA

Let us meditate on God Our Father's Presence Among Us During the Old Testament era:

Although God's children were expelled from Paradise by their choice not to do God's Will, God never abandoned them. He was present with them from the beginning. In Old Testament times, He manifested His presence through His own voice, the words of His Prophets, in the burning bush, in a pillar of smoke, and in the Ark of the Covenant.

After God rescued His children from the bondage of Egypt, He requested that they celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles for eight days each year. He wanted them to remember that He loved them, He saved them, and He was present with them. Later when God was present in the Ark of the Covenant, Solomon built a magnificent Temple to house it. He then celebrated an eight-day Feast of Dedication in preparation for God presence in the Temple. And God responded by manifesting His presence in a tangible and powerful way.

At the close of the Old Testament, the Maccabee's re-instituted this eight-day feast to purify and re-dedicate the Temple that had been defiled through pagan influence, so the Presence of God would dwell with them once more. (Lev 8:33-36; 9:1-24; 23:33-43; 2 Chron 7:1-9; 2 Mac 2:1-12.)

THIRD MAJOR OCTAVE

THE FIAT OF MARY, OUR MOTHER

Let us meditate on (1) Mary's "Triumphant Fiat," her "Yes" to God's Will, and (2) how she became the "New Ark," a living tabernacle for the newly manifested presence of God: Jesus, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity – Savior of God Our Father's children.

Mary gave her "Yes" when the Angel Gabriel came to her and asked her to be the mother of the Son of God. The Holy Spirit came upon her and the power of God Our Father overshadowed her. In saying "Yes" to God's Will, Mary (the woman) allowed God to be present with His children in a new way. She actually became the "New Ark," a living tabernacle of Jesus, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity – mankind's Savior – who with His Mother's cooperation, would restore the exiled children of God to their Father.

FOURTH MAJOR OCTAVE

THE FIAT OF JESUS, OUR SAVIOR SON OF GOD, AND SECOND PERSON OF THE HOLY TRINITY

Let us meditate on (1) Jesus' Fiat, His "Yes" to God's Will, and (2) how God Our Father sent Jesus to save us and bring us back home to Him:

Jesus offered His "fiat" to God Our Father during His Passion in the Garden of Gethsemane. "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt" (Mt 26:39). Through His Passion, Death, and Resurrection, Jesus redeemed us, defeating the sin (saying "No" to God's Will) and death (separation and exile from God) which Satan introduced into the world. Through Jesus, His Church, and His Sacraments, we could now return to God Our Father and have eternal life.

FIFTH MAJOR OCTAVE

THE SENDING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, OUR SANCTIFIER – SPIRIT OF GOD AND THE THIRD PERSON OF THE HOLY TRINITY

Let us meditate on how Jesus, after completing His Mission for God Our Father, asked Him to send the Holy Spirit, a newly revealed manifestation of God – the Third Person of the Holy Trinity. The Holy Spirit was sent (1) to lead us on our journey back home to Our Father and (2) to purify and refine us so that we could become living tabernacles of the indwelling presence of God:

Before ascending to His Father, Jesus promised that He would not leave us orphans. He asked God Our Father to send the Holy Spirit. In doing this, God could again be present with us in a new way. It was now “possible” for God, not only to be “with us (as in Old Testament times), but “in” us (Jn 14:16-17).

SIXTH MAJOR OCTAVE

THE CHOICE OF GOD’S PRODIGAL CHILDREN TO RETURN TO THEIR FATHER

Let us meditate on (1) how we are all prodigal children of God Our Father and (2) how He has provided every one of us with the opportunity to make a free-will choice to return to Him:

As prodigal children of God Our Father, we are given the opportunity (individually and collectively) to make a sincere, free-will decision to return to Our Father’s House. This means deciding to turn away from our own will, our own sinfulness, our own worldliness, and “convert” or turn back towards the presence of God Our Father (Lk 15:11-24).

SEVENTH MAJOR OCTAVE
THE FIAT OF GOD OUR FATHER'S CHILDREN
INDIVIDUALLY AND AS THE BODY OF CHRIST

Let us meditate on how, in consecrating ourselves to God Our Father and saying "Yes," unconditionally, to His Will, we find our way home to Him – we become living tabernacles of the indwelling presence of God.

In giving our "Yes" to God Our Father, in agreeing to do His Will in all things, in giving ourselves completely to Him, He comes to dwell in us and we dwell in Him – we are home with Our Father. We become temples of the Living God (2 Cor 6:16). In a sense, heaven and earth are joined: "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." (Mt 6:10).

EIGHT MAJOR OCTAVE
THE COMING OF THE NEW JERUSALEM

Let us meditate on the eventual conclusion of our Salvation History – the New Jerusalem promised in the Book of Revelation – when heaven and earth will be transformed, when mankind will finally be fully restored to God Our Father, and when God will manifest His presence and dwell with His children forever in a new way:

And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband; and I heard a great voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling of God is with men. He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them; He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away."

And He who sat upon the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." And He said to me, "It is done! I Am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water without price from the fountain of the water of life. He who conquers shall have this heritage, and I will be his God and he shall be My son." (Rev 21:1-7).

to God Our Father*

CONSECRATION PRAYER OF THE HOLY OCTAVE OF CONSECRATION TO GOD OUR FATHER

My Dearest Father, please accept this offering of myself - my body, mind and soul

I praise You for Your Creation – all Your works and wonders.

I thank you for giving me life and for all that You have done for me.

I offer up to You all that You have so generously given me.

I am sincerely sorry for not knowing, loving, serving, and honoring You as I should.

I embrace my inheritance as Your child, both the joy and the responsibilities.

I give You my "Yes" so that I may be an instrument of Your Will.

I pledge my fidelity and I ask for the grace of steadfastness and perseverance in my Faith.

Most loving, caring, and merciful of Fathers, in Your Divine Presence, I sincerely proclaim my love for You; I give myself (and my family) to You; and I solemnly consecrate myself (and my family) to You – now and forever.

Dearest Father, as Your child, I ask –

That You send Mary to guide me to Jesus, and that Jesus sends me the Holy Spirit so that they may all bring me to You.

That you dwell with me and in me – a living temple prepared by Mary, dedicated by Jesus, and purified by the Holy Spirit. And may I always be with You and in You.

That You permit me, as Your child, to be Your true and intimate friend – one who loves You above all things.

And that You come for me when I die, to bring me home to You.

I further ask you, Father, for the sake of all mankind:

To have mercy on all Your children – past, present and future.

To bring peace to the world and to gather all Your children to Yourself.

And that Your Kingdom comes and Your Will is done on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.
